

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF FORT LAUDERDALE CONCERT SERIES 2018-2019

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21 at 7pm Miami World Percussion Orchestra

Under the direction of Brad Watson, this unique ensemble features percussion instruments from all parts of the world. Not only packed with exciting rhythms, the program also will feature beautiful melodies from the regions of the Caribbean, China, Brazil, Mexico, Cuba, Africa, and others. The variety of the instruments and musical program will be enjoyable for music lovers and fascinating for children and youth!

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 16 at 4pm Annual Christmas Concert Robin L. McEachern, conductor

Invite your friends to come with you to our Christmas Concert featuring The Cathedral Choir and members of The Symphony of the Americas. Both new music and traditional favorites will be included in the program. Highlights include music by Felix Mendelssohn, John Rutter, Dan Forrest, Randol Alan Bass, Robert Shaw's "Many Moods of Christmas", and the "Hallelujah" Chorus by G. F. Handel.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 20 at 4pm Westminster Handbell Choir Kathleen Ebling Shaw, conductor

These students from Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N.J. will be on their winter concert tour. They have played here on numerous occasions, and perform all kinds of music on the largest set of handbells in the world. It is as exhilarating to see as it is to hear!

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 24 at 4pm Dillard Center for the Arts Jazz Ensemble Christopher Dorsey, conductor

The Dillard Center provides training in dance, music, theater, and visual arts, as well as a rigorous academic curriculum. These high school students who comprise the Jazz Ensemble have gained national recognition for their award-winning excellence.

What a great venue this will be to showcase the talents of young people in the South Florida area!

THURSDAY – SUNDAY, MARCH 7-10 Annual Kirk Singer Musical Michael R. Sayers, conductor

Our Kirk Singers (grades 9-12) will present their 46th Annual Broadway Musical in two dinner shows (Friday and Saturday, March 8 & 9) and two theater-style performances (Thursday, March 7 and Sunday afternoon, March 10). Tickets need to be purchased for each performance and will be available after February 1.

SUNDAY, MARCH 31 at 7pm Cathedral Choir Pops Concert Robin L. McEachern, conductor

Join us for an evening of great fun as the Cathedral Choir and members of The Symphony of the Americas present a concert of secular music featuring patriotic, Broadway, and other popular hits. Everyone always leaves this concert whistling a happy tune!

SUNDAY, MAY 5 at 9:30am & 11am Annual Children's Choirs Musical Gretchen Fasulo, conductor Susan Dodd, accompanist

Our Children's Choirs will present their Annual Spring Musical in both the 9:30 Contemporary Worship Service and the 11:00 Traditional Worship Service.

Their musical always focuses on a Bible Story and the Scriptures. Both the children and congregation alike take home a lesson in Faith.

SUNDAY, JUNE 2 at 7pm Kirk Singer Spring Concert Michael R. Sayers, conductor

We conclude our season by presenting our Kirk Singers (grades 9-12) in a concert featuring music from their Sunday worship service repertoire, as well as Broadway and contemporary selections.

All concerts (with the exception of the Kirk Singer Musical) are free of charge, open to the public, and no tickets are required. Free parking and security are provided.

401 SE 15th Ave • Fort Lauderdale, FL • 33301 • 954-462-6200 • www.firstpres.cc